

1898

BIRTH OF CHEER

Minnesota, USA
At a University of Minnesota sporting event, student Johnny Campbell jumps on the sports field and leads and entertains the crowd in "Cheers" and "Chants." Cheer is born.

The Sport of Cheer is an Athletic, Independent Sport with a Long, Innovative History!

EARLY 1920's NEW CHEER TECHNIQUES INTRODUCED

Cheer athletes introduce new techniques to assist their efforts. Signs, Arm Motions, basic Cheer stunt skills are introduced to further motivate the crowd at sporting events.

1940's

WOMEN BECOME THE MAJORITY

In the beginning, Cheer athletes were mostly men - until many men began to serve in the US military overseas. Women quickly became the majority and still remain 85% of Cheer's athletes today.

1948

CHEER TRAINING CAMPS INTRODUCED

Former Cheer athlete Lawrence "Herkie" Herkimer begins Cheer training camps. By 1961, Herkie trains over 100,000 Cheer athletes around the USA each year. Future ICU President Jeff Webb works to assist Herkie in the late 1960's.

1974

NEW ADVANCED CHEER TECHNIQUES INTRODUCED

Jeff Webb introduces new Cheer specific Stunt, Pyramid and Crowd techniques augmenting Cheer's athletic role in Sports.

1975

THE CHEER ROUTINE IS BORN

Cheer combines Skills with Music. Jeff Webb opens a University training camp by combining music with Cheer Skills. The Cheer Routine is born.

1982

1ST NATIONAL CHEER CHAMPIONSHIP ON ESPN TELEVISION

Jeff Webb places the "Cheer Routine" competition on a new sports network- ESPN. The Sport of Cheer is watched by millions on television and syndication around the world begins.

1987

CHEER SAFETY MEASURES PUBLISHED

Jeff Webb publishes the Cheer safety manual and organization, "American Association of Cheer Coaches and Administrators" (AACCA) to safely support the growth of Cheer.

1988

CHEER EDUCATION PROGRAMS ARE FORMERLY INTRODUCED IN JAPAN AND AROUND THE WORLD

Jeff Webb's organization introduces Cheer training programs in Japan, the United Kingdom, and later in Continental Europe, Latin America, Oceania and Africa, to name a few.

1990

ALL STAR CHEER BEGINS; HIP HOP BECOMES POPULAR

USA School and University Cheer reaches 1.7 million athletes. Non-school Cheer or "All Star Cheer" begins to grow worldwide. At U.S. basketball games, Cheer athletes entertain crowds with hip hop, the new urban form of crowd entertainment.

1995

1ST INTERNATIONAL EXHIBITION

The nations of Japan and Chile exhibit National Cheer Championship Teams at the United States National Championships.

1996

OPENING CEREMONIES OF THE XXVI OLYMPIAD

Cheer athletes participate in the Opening Ceremonies of the XXVI Olympiad in Atlanta.

2004

1ST WORLD CLUB CHAMPIONSHIPS, ICU NFS MEET

During the 1st World Club Championships, 11 National Federations meet and establish the ICU - to further support NF global development, and the Sport of Cheer worldwide.

2005

INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION PROGRAMS AND WORLD CHAMPIONSHIP PARTICIPATION ACCELERATES

Popularity of the ICU and IASF accelerates-World Championships and participation increase an estimated 11 new NFs each year.

2009

ICU BEGINS APPLICATION PROCESSES TO SPORTACCORD, IOC, AND WADA

The ICU seeks membership in the International Sport family to benefit Cheer athletes on all continents and serve as a great partner to all IFs of the world.

2011

OFFICIAL U.S. ANNUAL SAFETY REPORT LISTS CHEER AS ONE OF THE SAFEST SPORTS, SECOND ONLY TO SWIMMING.

2012

FIG, ICU AND SPORTACCORD SIGN TRILATERAL AGREEMENT of terms and conditions under which FIG supports the principle for the admission of ICU into SportAccord.

2013

ICU REACHES 105 NATIONAL FEDERATIONS; holds 9th World Championships with 70 Nations in attendance.

2013

POSITIVE RECOMMENDATION BY SPORTACCORD COUNCIL FOR ICU SPORTACCORD MEMBERSHIP.

Merci pour votre aimable soutien de notre application à SportAccord!